Please review the following important information:

By registering for this exam, you agree to AWS Certification Program Agreement governing our program:

<https://aws.amazon.com/certification/certification-agreement/>.

- Day of Exam Identification

On the day of your exam, arrive up to 15 minutes early. You must bring a copy of this email with your Test Taker Authorization Code in order for the Exam Proctor to load your exam. You will also be required to provide the Exam Proctor two (2) forms of identification. One must be a photo Government issued ID. Secondary identification may be a credit card, bank debit card, or employee identification card. In the United States, a Social Security card will not be deemed an acceptable form of identification. Please note that during the exam check-in process, you will be asked to turn out exterior pockets (on jackets, jeans, slacks, etc.) to verify that the pockets are either empty or that they do not contain any prohibited items. Additionally, external eyewear will be inspected to ensure that it is not technology-enabled.

- Exam Cancellation and Rescheduling Policy

If you wish to reschedule or cancel your exam, you must log into your account at <https://www.webassessor.com/aws>. Once you're logged in, click the "Reschedule/Cancel" button next to the exam you wish to change. Cancelling or rescheduling within 72 hours will result in a USD 75 fee.

- Special Accommodations (Example: "Zoom Text" or a "reader")

If you require any special accommodations, it is your responsibility to contact us and request approval and test center arrangement prior to scheduling your exam appointment. Special accommodations require at least 30 days advance notice to AWS. If you require a special accommodation and have not made arrangements, please cancel this exam appointment and contact us.
